

Employee Confirmation and Agreement

This agreement outlines the obligations and responsibilities of employees hired by Bayshore Plumbers regarding uniform care, company property, and onboarding procedures. By signing this document, the employee acknowledges understanding and compliance with the terms stated below.

1. Uniform Policy

Each technician is provided with the following uniforms:

- Short Sleeve Shirts: 6
- Long Sleeve Shirts: 5
- Pants: 6
- Jackets: 2

The uniform provided by Bayshore Plumbers is company property, and it is expected that employees:

- Maintain the uniforms in good condition.
- Return all issued uniforms to the office upon departure from Bayshore Plumbers, whether by resignation or termination, within 7 days from their last working day.

If the uniforms are not returned in acceptable condition or within the specified timeframe, Bayshore Plumbers reserves the right to deduct the cost of the uniforms from the employee's final settlement.

2. Truck and Tool Usage Policy

All technicians are responsible for the safe and appropriate use of company vehicles and tools provided to them.

- Inventory Check: A Supply In-Charge will conduct a comprehensive inventory of the assigned truck and tools upon initial issuance to the technician. Routine checks, including both scheduled and surprise inspections, will be conducted regularly.
- End-of-Employment Inventory: An inventory check will be conducted upon the technician's departure from the company, regardless of whether it is voluntary or involuntary.
- Loss or Damage: Any missing, damaged, or unreported items at the time of this inventory check will be deducted from the technician's final settlement.

By signing this agreement, the employee accepts responsibility for informing the Supply In-Charge or Maintenance In-Charge of any damage or loss of company property during their employment.

3. Onboarding and Employee Handbook Acknowledgment

Each employee is provided with the Bayshore Plumbers Employee Handbook upon joining. This handbook includes critical information on:

- Company policies, procedures, and code of conduct
- Safety guidelines and job-specific responsibilities
- Performance expectations and company standards

By signing this document, the employee acknowledges that they have received the Employee Handbook and agree to review and follow the guidelines within.
